Title IX Sanction Guide for Staff Respondents

The following Sanction Guide is for proceedings pursuant to 600.030 of the University of Missouri Collected Rules and Regulations against Respondents who are Staff members. Please note that this Sanction Guide should only be considered after a finding of responsibility has been made against a Respondent. This Sanction Guide has been developed to offer general sanctioning recommendations for violations of CRR 600.030, and to promote a level of consistency when imposing sanctions against Staff Respondents.

The suggested range of sanctions for any particular alleged violation of policy is just a suggestion; at all times the full range of sanctions is available in any specific matter.

The appropriate sanction in any one matter depends on the specific facts and circumstances in that matter. Decision-makers should use their professional judgement when determining an appropriate sanction, carefully weighing the facts and circumstances, and taking into consideration any mitigating and aggravating factors that may exist in any particular matter.

CONSIDERATIONS FOR SANCTIONING:

- The full range of sanctions under CRR 600.030 is available for imposition for each violation of policy.
- More egregious violations should receive more severe sanctions, while less egregious violations should receive less severe sanctions, within the range of sanctions.
- More than one sanction may be imposed for a single violation.

Mitigating Factors: Information or evidence presented to the decision-maker regarding the Respondent or the circumstances that does not bear on the question of responsibility, but that receives consideration in lessening the severity of the sanction.

Examples: Genuine remorse.

The conduct was committed in error, by mistake, or was clearly unintentional.

A request for leniency by the Complainant.

The Respondent's conduct did not exhibit a deliberate disregard for the dignity and autonomy of the Complainant, but instead appeared to be an error in judgment.

Aggravating Factors: Information or evidence presented to the decision-maker that increases the severity of a sanction.

Examples: The Respondent has prior conduct violations.

Lack of contrition.

The Respondent was in a position of power or authority over the Complainant.

The Respondent's conduct included the use of force or physical violence, or the intentional administration of a drug or substance to the Complainant without Complainant's knowledge.
