Meeting Minutes
August 29, 2024
2:00-3:00PM

Welcome and Introductions

As the first meeting of the fall semester, the group began with introductions and welcoming new members.

Overview and Purpose of ISC

Steven Chaffin, Academic Affairs Program Director, UM

Chaffin provided an overview of the ISC and how it operates. Topics covered but were not limited to how topics can be placed on the agenda as well as voting and quorum procedures. Both university administrators and ISC members are welcome to contribute topics to the ISC agenda. Requests for agenda items typically take place about 2 weeks prior to each meeting, and agendas are sent to the group 1 week prior to each meeting

Brainstorming Priorities for the Year

The ISC discussed various items it would like to discuss and investigate further at future meetings, including:

- Increased interactions between students of the four campuses
- System-wide activities promoting student cardiovascular health/physical activity
- Student worker staffing levels and implications for student services
- Greater transparency around rationale for tuition increases
- Strategies for increasing student involvement / visibility of SGAs
- Learning more about other state higher education systems, practices, structures

Selection of ISC Officers

The ISC selected its officers for the 2024-2025 academic year, as follows:

- Chair: Max Hood, UMSL SGA Vice President
- Vice Chair: Clay Van Eaton, MU MSA President
- Recorder: Ryan Highfill, ASUM Executive Director

The meeting adjourned at 3:00pm. As a next step, Chaffin will schedule a meeting with the new ISC officers to plan for the academic year.
